“ Still having trouble accepting your gone. I find myself thinking about you very often. I have so many great memories with you. I remember the first day we met in Crowley. You had just moved from California and we were next door neighbors. We became fast friends. Paul had a way about him, he was always so kind and friendly and witty. Anyone that has ever met him would always walk away with a smile. Paul was so funny and had so much joy in his heart. I never knew of anyone that disliked Paul. I can't say enough of what a great person he was. I am heartbroken. You were an amazing, caring and genuine friend to me. You will be missed every day.
