“ This is David Nix, Juanita's oldest. Mom died on February 25. We are interring her ashes at St. James Episcopal Church in Texarkana in a small service this Friday, July 25. She will join our Dad in the columbarium. I know Melanie and Angie were looking for ways to connect with our Louisiana family. I just found this website. I got to watch "Uncle Alvin" "grow up" through high school and beyond. I was only 11 years younger, but remember him as larger than life. He was always a highlight of our trips to see Mama and Papa. My email is dnix0606@att.net. Our thoughts and prayers with you...David and Stacy
