“ André was our classmate from our years at Mt. Carmel (1st-7th) and continuing when we consolidated with Cathedral (8th-12th). These pictures were from our 65th Birthday Reunion in 2019. She was always smiling. May she rest in peace.

“ Andre and I met in the late 70's working at the Northgate Mall. We became friends and the staff of Memory Lane would hang out together for several years. I loved her like a sister, life happened and we lost touch. She certainly did know how to have fun and my memories are all great. My deepest condolences to her loved ones, I will keep you in my prayer. RIP pretty lady. With love.
