Andre Christopher Bourque was born on January 16, 1978, in Lafayette where he was a lifelong resident. Andre touched the lives of many through faith, fellowship, and food. He never met a stranger. He loved getting to know people and was known for making a short story long. He was a man of faith, a student of the scriptures, and rarely went anywhere without his Bible. He taught many Bible studies over the years to many people. During his multiple stays in the hospital, his Bible was always on the side of his bed. He was known to share the good news of God with nurses and was often favored with hospital staff. Andre was a family man. He loved spending time with his favorite niece, Katie, and his nephews, Carter and Cameron. He was a gifted cook – constantly perfecting his grilling skills and trying new recipes. He and his brothers frequently swapped recipes and joked about who made the best roux from scratch. The impact he has had on people over years cannot be measured. He will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his parents, Ronald James Bourque and Judy Nell Bourque; his siblings, Aaron Bourque (Sarah), Nicholas Bourque (Elysse), and Sara Bourque; his niece Katie Bourque, as well as his nephews Carter Bourque and Cameron Bourque.

He was preceded in death by his paternal Grandparents, Aby and Beatrice Bourque; his maternal grandparents, Felix and Rita Marks; as well as his Uncle Bobby Lee Bourque.

Pallbearers will be Aaron Bourque, Nicholas Bourque, Jonathan Richard, Timothy Regan, Joshua Bellard, Robert Simon, Andrew Hilts, and Jordan Richard.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Carter Bourque and Cameron Bourque
