“ I did not know Mr. Broussard; but I now have a gelding, Cat T Cajun who is out of one of Mr. Broussard's favorite mares, Haidas Royal Gal.

I just wanted family to know his legacy lives on through the many beautiful and talented horses he left in this world. And I hope I meet Mr. Broussard in the world to come. Rest in peace, dear Asa.

Thank you for this comment! ❤️ He did love this horse! I trained him and my grandparents would so proud to come watch us! I'm glad he has a good home!

“ I met Mr. Asa and Teddy when J was in high school and became fast friends with son Phil. Mr. Asa was such a presence and present to me for every day that followed. Even after we lost Phil, Mr Asa kept up with me and would call me Out of the blue and we could talk for an hour or more. He invited us to his Texas utopia but events always prevented it. I will one day drive there and pay homage to my friend who just loves it there. Mr Asa was bold, funny, kind and knew how to be a true friend. I will miss him so much. What a dear man he was to me.

“ "Brother" used to visit me occasionally here at the syrup mill office in Abbeville, sharing with me his treasured memories of my grandfather who died before I was born and of other members of our family. The last time we talked we made plans to get together after his trip to Texas to review the genealogy that the son of Asa's first cousin Wesley Broussard left with me. I am so very sad that he is gone and that I knew him for such a short time. Sending all of you my deepest and most sincere condolences, Carole Steen Lucia “ Cousin Asa was my oldest living relative, and I looked up to him like a father figure after my own father passed away 14 years ago. He was always good for some laughs—he brightened up many of my days, as I hope in some way I did for him. I will truly miss his humor and our talks about family, hunting, sports, news of the day, & his horses!!
