

Ashlee Michelle Hebert

August 27, 1983 - June 24, 2024

Erath -

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, June 27, 2024, from 2:00 pm until 5:00 pm for Ashlee Michelle Hebert, age 40, who passed away on Monday, June 24, 2024, at her residence in Erath, Louisiana.

Ashlee Michelle Hebert was born on August 27, 1983, in Lafayette and she was a lifelong resident of Erath. She was an amazing mother to 4 sweet, loving children. Ashlee was an amazing cook and learned through her family, cookbooks, and TV. She loved to watch Guy Fieri's "Diners, Drive-ins, and Dives". Ashlee fought hard for everything she's ever loved in her life. She was so brave, beautiful, and she always wanted to "show you a trick". Ashlee listened to all kinds of music, danced around the kitchen and living room with her babies. Encapsulated in the moment. She loved her kids until the very end. Ashlee cared for her grandmother full time prior to her passing and has always been here to help others. Her deep love and connection to cats especially her cat, Oliver. Ashlee is loved truly by many, and will never be forgotten. And she was a gangsta. (her words, yet so true)

Ashlee Michelle Hebert is survived by her children, Kyla E. Hebert, Lexi A. Vaughn, Gracie L. Vaughn, and Evan M. Vaughn of Erath; her father, Michael L. Hebert; as well as her siblings, Tabitha P. Hebert of Rayne and Hilary B.

Hebert of Erath; many loved ones, Leonard W. Benoit, Jayden J. Mier, Bryce J. Melancon, Hailey M. Fant, Cynthia A. Turner, and Mitsie Hebert; as well as her beloved cat, Oliver.

She was preceded in death by her mother Rebecca A. Turner, as well as Purvis Hebert and Gurvis Turner.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.

“ One time, my mom took all sorts of leftovers and made a buffet for my siblings and I. She took our toy cash register and said “Are you paying with a hug or a kiss?” We had all paid with both, it was so fun that my mom played with her imagination with us that day.
