“ We had such a beautiful friendship, and I will always cherish her cards and letters from our years as penpals. She brought me so many smiles, and I admired her. I already miss her so much. Prayers for all of you, and thank you for sharing her with me. I am blessed to have known her.

“ Although we didn't know Barbara very long, we enjoyed her friendship, beautiful smile and positive attitude. She joined us often for Sunday Mass even though she was in pain. Our visits with her was always positive. She never complained or focused attention on her condition. She was a beautiful person who enriched our lives. We will miss her, but we realize that she is with God for all eternity.

“ We only knew Barbara a short time. But her faith in the Lord, her humility and her wisdom were endearing to us. We valued the times she walked and made a stop to visit on our patio. She will be missed, but we know we will see her again. She is no longer in pain.
