Benjamin Thomas Flockton was born in Plymouth, MA on July 5, 1978 and later moved to Mandeville with his family when he was a teenager. He graduated from Mandeville High School, where he ran cross country track. He attended, University of Louisiana in Lafayette for a few semesters where he met his wife, Andrea. They lived in Lafayette and then Youngsville and had two children together. He received his Bachelor's degree from Louisiana State University. Ben enjoyed spending time with his family. He liked watching his son play soccer and his daughter play volleyball. He loved hearing his son play the piano and listening to the imaginative stories his daughter told. Once he decided to learn how to do something, he worked hard at teaching himself. Ben loved learning about new things. He loved playing the guitar and learning new songs. He enjoyed cooking and creating new dishes for his family. He was an accomplished guitarist, home chef, baker, photographer and artist. Even after the ALS had rendered him immobile, he still watched and learned about science. He enjoyed watching LSU and Saints football and the New
