Betty was born on February 6, 1938 in Vermilion Parish, where she was a lifelong resident. She was a member of the Lay Carmelites for approximately 35 years, choosing to dedicate herself to her faith and involving herself as much as she could in her church. Betty was very knowledgeable about the law, especially after dedicating over 40 years to the legal field assisting different judges and attorneys in Vermilion parish. She was also a notary and had notarized thousands of documents for the people of this area, dedicating countless hours to help people without expectations of any monetary compensation. She thrived in her profession and took great pride in going above expectations of those she assisted. Betty also loved to travel. She made great memories on her numerous family vacations and road trips across the United States. She enjoyed visiting the Vatican and other overseas countries. Even though she traveled often, her greatest love was her family. She loved "BIG", and those around her knew it.

Betty is survived by her loving husband of 69 years, Paul "Warren" Comeaux; her children, Elizabeth "Betsy" Fox and Michael Comeaux (Carol); her grandchildren, Andrea Cooper, Cale Comeaux, Tyler Comeaux, Dustin Comeaux, Nicholas Duhon, Adrienne Buckles, Robyn Fox Carter, April Johnson, Shawn Comeaux, Deana Haines, and Mattlin Looney; 20 great-grandchildren, 10 great great-grandchildren, as well as her sister, Margaret Vincent (Daniel).

She was preceded in death by her son, Don Comeaux; her parents, Louise Broussard and Nicholas Broussard; as well as her siblings, Dudley Broussard and Elsie Hebert.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
