Carroll was born on August 19, 1939, in Abbeville, Louisiana and he was a lifelong resident of Vermilion Parish. Comeaux dedicated his life to serving and protecting the lives of others. Prior to beginning his professional career, he earned his undergraduate degree at Southwestern Louisiana Institute in 1960, and continued his education through McNeese State University's Graduate Program. Mr. Comeaux was an active member of the Maurice Volunteer Fire Department, where he dedicated 47 years of his life to protecting the members of his community, working tirelessly to expand the growth of the fire department. Beyond the fire department, Mr. Comeaux devoted his time to his profession as a teacher, eventually retiring as the Vermillion Parish School Board Maintenance Supervisor.

Mr. Comeaux's joy rooted from being the staple in his family and a servant to his community.

His roles as a devoted Husband, Father, Grand-Father, and Great-Grandfather, afforded him the opportunity to provide his loved ones with heartfelt advice and guidance regardless of the difficulty of the situation. When he was not loving on his family and the community, he spread his God given gifts through his beautiful carpentry masterpieces, being the ultimate resource for repairing broken things. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

Clark and her husband Ricky of Maurice, Marty Comeaux and his wife Kathy of Leroy, and Richard Comeaux and his wife Carolyn of Maurice; his grandchildren, Ashley Clark (Heather) of Maurice, Amber Clark of Maurice, Nia Jones, Cody Comeaux (Danielle) of Milton, Donnell Comeaux, and Rogell Comeaux; his great-grandchildren, Kai Comeaux, Jackson Stoute, Bryson Lege, Molly Menard, Shane Broussard, Julia Broussard, and Eli Comeaux; his siblings, Renella Marken of Maurice, and Warren Comeaux (Betty) of Maurice; his God Father, Horace Trahan of Lafayette; along with a host of nieces and nephews.

“ We love Mr. Carroll. He babysat my husband as a young child, James Duhon, when his mother was teaching at her dancing school. He was a mentor and friend to my husband ever since, like another father figure. With me, Mr. Carroll, after learning of my father's death, made a special hand-crafted frame in which to place my father's burial folded American flag. It sits on the top shelf of our wall to wall library bookshelf to this day. I thanked him on Sunday when we had a chance to visit. For several years, after Jimmy and I got married, Mr. Carroll and I also shared a love of reading and shared and swapped books as neighbors. Every Christmas he and Mrs. Cecile would bring over their homemade fudge. Thoughtful and oh, so delicious! Wonderful memories that we will treasure always. In summary, I would like to say of Mr. Carroll Comeaux, a wonderful neighbor, a loving family man, an example to us all....A LIFE WELL-LIVED!
May the Lord Jesus Christ grant you eternal peace for your beautiful soul, Mr Carroll. Amen.
Love Always, Maura Foret Duhon and Jimmy Duhon
