Hi everyone. I was looking him up, remembering bartending for him. Last time I saw him, he sold his place and moved to a new business and home. I was helping him in his home he was using braces on his legs, guess it could have been the downfall. I miss Louisiana. I would come to visit had I not had a child. I think I met Carol in 2012/2013

Last time I visited with Carol, his daughter had just moved in with him. Her boyfriend was apparently some sheriff job. He was not my friend, he was jealous, his daughter was too, Carol told me. She obviously didn't help her dad and I bartended. It wasn't like I was taking anything from her. Carol knew his daughter so I left. I didn't stay long but I knew he needed more help, we talked about it. Anyway I'm so glad I had the opportunity I loved everyone in Lafayette.
