Visitation will be held on Saturday, September 10, 2022, from 10:00 am until the time of service at Cypress Funeral Home Chapel in Maurice.

Worship Leader Chap Gary will officiate.

His dad and I gave the name Christian to him. We shared a semi-private hospital room with parents named, Mary and Joseph. Love is a word he often used. His love of Jesus was widely known and spoken to anyone with listening ears. He prayed for many. He put his talent to work, creating many beautiful landscapes. He made many friends and appreciative clients. His quote, "My job is to bless and love, that's it!".

He liked getting together with friends and enjoyed making music. Non-judgmental, sweet soul, kind hearted, genuine, gentle soul, compassionate, devoted, hard working are some words used to describe him.

Christian is survived by his wife, Stephanie; his daughter, Alyssa; his son, River; his brothers, Kelly & Courtney; and his mother, Jan Dunlap.

He was preceded in death by his father Gayle, who passed away in 1992.

Bural will be held at St. Basil Catholic Cemetery in Duson, Louisiana.

Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555, (337) 740-3123, is in charge of Funeral arrangements.

“ Chris and I attended high school and played music together in Lafayette. In 10th grade we looked brought alike that people thought we were brothers and decades later when we reconnected on social media he immediately called me “brother.” Chris was an incredibly sweet and sincere guy who loved his family and music. I am so sorry to learn of his passing and send my heartfelt condolences to his family and friends. - Chas Bowie

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. Christian was a fairly recent friend who took such good care of our landscape. As important, we often chatted about our shared interest in wine and cigars. We kept saying we’d take the time to enjoy them together.. Sadly that day never came. Don’t let time get in the way of enjoying the company of others. Christian always went the extra effort to not only satisfy the customer but enhance the experience. I’ll miss him and his team.

“ I am Phillip Wain, His wife Stephanie is my niece. My wife Vikki and I have spent many years, spending time with Christian, Stephanie and Alyssa. He and my wife would spend time, walking around our backyard looking at our flower beds and talking about different flowers. He was very knowledgeable about names of them, how to take care of them. We would very often talk about God, his knowledge of the Bible was Incredible. I Grieve for Steph losing not only her husband, But her Best Friend. He and Alyssa spent much Quality time together. She loved and Adored him. I've always considered him as Family, and as well a Very Special Person. He will be missed by Many, Family, Friends, coworker's who worked for him in his Landscaping Business. He is looking down upon us now, Playing his guitar and being with his Dad, Gayle. May Eternal rest, Grant unto him, O Lord and let perpetual light shine Upon Him, May the Souls of the Of the Faithfully Departed, through the Mercy of GOD, Rest In Peace, AMEN, We Love you Christian and when we look at Flowers, We Will Look Above and THINK About You
