Connie was born on December 26, 1952 in Crowley and she was a longtime resident of Breaux Bridge. She was a fun-loving woman who found joy in the simple pleasures of life: whether she was knocking down pins at the bowling alley, trying her luck at the casino, or playing a lively game of Bourré with friends and family. She worked many jobs throughout her life, always giving her best and forming lasting connections wherever she went. Connie will be remembered for her spirited personality, her love of good company, and the warmth she brought to every gathering.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 23 years, Philip G. Quartana;

Her son, Jason L. Picard; her parents, Percy J. Martin and Russie C. Duhon; as well as one sister, Barbara G. Menard.

She is survived by four sisters, Billie Guidry (Darrell) of Lafayette, Cheryl Moore (Charles) of Scott, Janice Lavergne of Scott, and Dana Johnson (James) of Copus Christi, TX; one brother, Troy Martin of Lafayette; her Godchildren, Linnette Plagens, Corey Moore, and Travis Menard; as well as a host of nieces and nephews.
