

Cynthia Domingue Guilbeau

November 27, 1958 - May 1, 2021

Duson -

A Graveside Service will be held on Tuesday, May 4, 2021 at 11:00 Am in St. Basile Basil Catholic Cemetery for Cynthia Domingue Guilbeau, 62, who passed away on Saturday, May 1, 2021 in Lafayette, Louisiana.

Deacon Keith Duhon of St. Josephs Catholic Church will officiate the service.

Cynthia Domingue Guilbeau was born on November 27, 1958 in Lafayette, Louisiana and was a lifelong resident of Lafayette Parish. Cynthia was a talented artist and craftswoman. She created beauty out of ashes. She was a seamstress who needed no pattern, a painter who needed no numbers to follow. Her keen eye for detail made the art pieces she created truly as unique as her. She was a devoted wife, mother, and friend. Cynthia's smile and laugh would light up the room. She adored her pets and enjoyed having a nice sweet snack at night. Cynthia was a warrior who impacted this life in many ways. She fought the good fight in life and never failed to remind those close to her how much they meant. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her, and her memories will be forever cherished.

Cynthia is survived by her loving husband, Gregory Guilbeau of Duson; her son, Christopher Guilbeau of Duson; and her sister, Betty Babineaux.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Stanford Domingue and Rosa Perrodin Domingue; as well as her siblings, Charles Savoy, Dean Cummings, and Bryan Domingue.

A heartfelt thank you is extended by the Guilbeau family to Carmen Elaine for her care and compassion during Cynthia's deepest time of need.
