“ My gurl Dana, I will always remember you from the racetrack when y'all were on a win streak. I'll think of you every time I hear a 4 wheeler going to fast for my old ? !!! Watching LSU games at your house, enjoying your Gumbo and swimming in your pool at 3 am. And now wishing I didn't have to say goodbye this way. You definitely made a great impression with everyone who met you. I loved your zest for life, the caring of your children and the things you would do for the man you loved so much. Rest in God's Eternal Peace my friend, we will see each other again one day. My prayers are with the Dehart and Hulin families that must go on without you. May God give you all strength and courage in the coming days because you are already missed by all. 💔🙏😭

“ No words can ease y'all pain, but please know y'all are deep in my prayers. Always remember DD will forever be in y'all hearts, any way you feeling a empty stop, she is there. Always think of the memories; good, bad or ugly cause y'all will get to a point where they will all bring y'all peace. Fly high DD and please keep watching over your family along with your Raelynn & Sophia, they will miss you a lot. Sending prayers, love & hugs to you all.
