“ Mr Nu Nu was one of the greatest men I ever met. He loved Christ, Ms Mary and his boys. He was always available to drive our basketball team to games and encouraged us to play hard. When I would reply that I would be sitting on the bench and eating popcorn because I was not a real good basketball player, he would reply, “I believe in you, tonight’s your night, go get ‘em! I’m confident it was a glorious arrival into paradise and that he has seen the face of Jesus and been reunited with his parents and his son, Danny. Love the family. Prayers for peace, courage, and comfort. Love yall Scott Angelle

Ms Mary, Anthony, Martin, Charles and Family: I am so sorry about Your Loss and really believe that Peewe came to get his brother, BFF and socializer. They were so close. I will always remember when Mr. NuNu would always say “ Peewee and I are brothers “. They really loved each other and cared for each other as family. He was such a caring person, had so many people who loved him. He will be dearly missed. I will miss seeing Him sitting under the tree or in the den. I know when Peewe died, he really took it hard and for some reason, I really believe it brought him down. My Deepest Sympathies to all of you. I know he is already with his God. God Bless 🙏🙏 Always, ❤️
