He is survived by his daughters, Michelle Wood-Meyers and her husband Huey Meyers of Lafayette, Danielle Courreges and her fiancé Bobby, of Youngsville, and ex son-in-law and dear friend Patrick Courreges. He was a loving and proud grandfather to Nicholas (Nick) Armentor and his wife Whitney, Kaleigh Louviere and her husband Jason, Rowan Wood and her fiancé Alex Sutherlin, and Christopher Courreges. He was also blessed with six great-grandchildren: Madden, Milani, Kreed, and Ivy Louviere, and Ellie and Ezra Armentor, who brought him great pride and joy.

Daniel is preceded in death by his parents, Daniel Wood, Sr and Alice Wood and his beloved in-laws, Elford and Hazel (Reed) Guillory, whom he adored.

Daniel proudly served his country as a Veteran of the United States Air Force.

After his years of service, he moved to Houston, Texas, where he met the love of his life, Patsy, and they began to build their family together in Houston. He spent his career working in management in the oilfield, the salt mine, and later consulting, where he became highly respected for his expertise in hydraulics. Daniel was known for his strong work ethic and dedication, continuing to work until the age of 80.

Above all else, Daniel treasured his family. They were the center of his life and his greatest joy. When he was not working, he loved spending time fishing, enjoying the peace and quiet of the water. He was also an avid Nascar follower, he loved watching hockey and for years, attended every Louisiana Ice Gator game. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew him.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to our closest family and friends for your support, the staff of Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Dr. Brierre with Lourdes Oncology, Dr. Chris Fontenot and the staff of Southern Urology, Pastor Gabe Smith from OSC Church in Broussard, Hospice of Acadiana, and the compassionate caregivers at the Calcutta House for their kindness and care.
