

Darrell Randolph DeCuir

November 10, 1980 - May 11, 2024

Abbeville -

Darrell Randolph DeCuir, age 43, passed away on Saturday, May 11, 2024, in Abbeville.

Darrell Randolph DeCuir was born on November 10, 1980, in Abbeville where he remained a lifelong resident. Those who knew Darrell knew his struggles with addiction. Despite his struggles he was loved and will be missed by his family and friends. We found this poem by Jacqueline A. Grieve that really spoke to us and would like to share this in Darrell's memory:

It's Me

Hey, you guys, don't feel guilty,

It was just my time to go.

I can see you're all feeling sad,

I can see the tears still flow.

My life's journey ended early,

The path I chose was short.

You all tried your best to change it,

But in the end it was for me to sort.

I know I caused you sadness,

I know I caused you pain,

But I was captured by these demons,
They wouldn't set me free again.
They took away my freedom,
They took away my choice,
And when they got their hooks in,
You could hear it in my voice.
There were times I tried to fight them,
There was a time I nearly won,
But they came back and overpowered me,
I had nowhere left to run.
I haven't really left you guys,
I am closer than you know,
I will be the whisper in the wind,
I will be everywhere you go.
One day you will all forgive me
One day you will understand
And when your time on earth is done
I will be waiting to take your hand.

Darrell is survived by his daughter, Madison Bernard; his father, Jeston Dale DeCuir; his step-mother, Cathy DeCuir; as well as his siblings, Clayton DeCuir and Tyler DeCuir.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Bonnie Sue Marie Vice DeCuir; his maternal grandparents, Mary Joyce Vice and Elvin Vice, Sr.; as well as his paternal grandparents, Willie DeCuir and May Peltier.

A private family gathering will be held at a later date.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
