She cherished every moment spent with her family and friends and her warm spirit and joyful presence will be deeply missed.

In her younger years, Dolores was an avid bowler and enjoyed many mornings at the lanes with her bowling friends. On the weekends, she loved a good game of bourrée with the ladies. She was also a devoted sports fan and especially loved cheering on her favorite teams, the LSU Tigers and the New Orleans Saints. Game days were always special occasions filled with excitement, good company, and watching the football pool numbers.
