All of you are welcome
The gates are open wide
There is no need to hurry
Or rush to get inside

While I am free to enter
I stand guard at the gate
Welcoming my brothers
Who too often share my fate

It truly is an honor
To welcome those who pass
Acknowledging their courage

And give them peace at last

We each share a commitment
To our country and the Corps
In this life and what follows
It is worth fighting for.
