“ That Price is Right smile reminds me of the countless hours us neighborhood kids had with Mr Boz playing softball, football, basketball, and starting the cycle all over again each year. Not sure who had more fun, us or him!

His talent was obvious and he helped us improve each season. He expected fair play and good sportsmanship. At times, there was even hunting and fishing. And yes he had a lot of great stories and he listened to ours.

Here is the rest of your team from those days: James, Jean, Fritz, Brent, Arthur, Joey, Kevin, Byron, Darrel, Allan, Karl, Alan, Troy, Brian, Johnny, Tony, and Larry.

Thanks for being part of all those good times and excitement. My condolences and prayers to the family.
