“ My wife and I got very sad, when we read the news that Alex had passed.
Alex was probably one of the finest gentlemen that we have ever meet and were fortunate enough to have formed a friendship. Our lives surrounded Mardi Gras and Alex designed a, one of a kind, purse for my wife - which is always admired by all when she take it out.
When ever I see an ascot I always think of Alex and always will.

“ Uncle Alex,
You were loved and will be missed. Through your work with Vivian Alexander, you created beauty that has been shared all over. My deepest condolences to my cousins, Liza, Jim, and Rush.
Love, Katherine
