“ There are too many memories of my mother in my childhood & adult life to list them all. As her first born child, I can say with 100% certainty in my heart & soul that she was the most welcoming woman in the world. If you were hungry she fed you, if you were troubled, she prayed with you. She welcomed my husband with arms wide open from the very first time I brought him to meet her almost 37 years ago, & she loved him as one of her own. Mama, you over came so much in your life, & I've always admired your strength and courage to fight through the tough times. You were a beautiful soul, a beautiful woman, & a beautiful mother. You will "ALWAYS" live deep in my heart and memories & I will speak your name loud & proud for the rest of my days. I love you mama ❤️ There is no sadness in Heaven, only love, peace, & happiness, and I know God gave you a front row seat up there. Rest well mother, love your eldest baby, Jannet 🍷❤️💜💚💛🧡💙💜💜
