“ He wasn't my father by blood but was a father to me regardless. For the last 29 years this man has been a role model to me and my children and brothers. He taught me to drive a boat, drive a car, stick shift at that, change a tire, change my oil, and so so many other things. He was always there when you needed, didn't matter what time it was. My children called you Pawpaw and you were and always will be my step dad. We love you so so much and we miss you terribly. I sense you, smell your cologne, and I see butterflies flying near me so I know you are no longer hurting and you're telling us to be strong for not only you but mom as well. Thank you for everything you've taught me and my boys, thank you for being a father to me when you didn't have to, thank you for letting me do whatever I wanted to you and getting you to come wherever I wanted. Especially the dog pound after surgery. I have so many wonderful memories I will cherish for the rest of my life. I miss you so much Pawpaw and I Promise to look after mom and help her. Until I see you again, leave some fish for me to catch ❤️❤️~the baby
