“ I worked with George at Strouds Shady Oaks in Lafayette, LA while he was in College and I was working when the Oilfield busted in the late 80's. I made a lifelong friend even though we both moved on we would check on each other occasionally. I began to worry here recently about George's family in Lebanon with all the tensions in the Middle East and reached out. I got a call from his brother Charles telling me George passed May of this year and breaks my heart. Such a kind and passionate friend. God bless him and his entire family.
