“ I was so lucky that day Vanessa turned to me on our way down a flight of stairs, at Comeaux High School and said “you’re my best friend”. I wasn’t expecting it and I was instantly elevated and the world was suddenly in color, like the Wizard of OZ. We were a couple of misfits who found each other and made each other blossom. I learned so many life lessons tagging along in her and her family’s lives. I am forever grateful.

I want everyone to know that Vanessa was a quiet Superstar in high school. Not glaringly popular, she was too shy for that. She was in French Club, Honor Society, Chorus and Pep Squad. She had a driver’s license, eventually, and a mom who was generous with car usage.

*Had I not met her, I would’ve missed out on so much life!
Rest easy, Van. Go to bingo and smoke cigarettes, drink coffee, play some Boure’ and Spades all that stuff that you loved.*

Your always and forever bestie, Leigh.
