Gloria was born in Houston, TX and moved to New Orleans when she was 13 years old. Later, she married Mike who began his career in teaching and coaching. Mike coached at schools in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama. In 1970, the family moved to Abbeville and fell in love with the people and the Cajun culture.

Gloria was very active in the community. She was a Girl Scout leader, secretary of TRIAD, a member of Keep Abbeville Beautiful, Vermilion Parish Library Foundation, active at St. Alphonsus church, and active in disseminating education information around the state to keep school board members and teachers informed. Gloria was President of the Fleur de Lis Republican Women's Club. In 2014, Gloria was inducted into the Acadiana Order of Living Legends.

Gloria's philosophy of life was simple: We need good teachers and excellent libraries. We all want the best for our community. There comes a point when one cannot just sit back when something is wrong and allow it to destroy a community and therefor the people you love.
