“ Oh I'm so sorry for your loss. I am a clerk at the Crowley post office. Temporarily out on sick leave. But he was friend. The most kindest God fearing man I know. He came inside to visit me every time he checked his P.O. Box. We had great conversations. He loved his family. I have one of his crosses he made. I framed it and took a picture of it to show him . He was very happy and told me he had no regrets in his life. He loved the Lord and whenever God was ready for him , he was ready too! I will miss him dearly. Marcella LeJeune
