“ James and I became very close friends working at for many's years at Stuller and away from there as well. I wish we could have stayed closer together than we did once he left but that the way like goes.. we did talk from time to time to catch up. James had a bad heart, a kind and loving heart and he loved his sister Leigh and her baby no doubt about that.. He love them so much... and loved watching them when they was young.. RIP my friend !! I will love you always and forever !!!
