“ My name is Deanna Sue Romero Boudreaux. My father was Evier Romero, one of Oles' younger brothers. Evier died when I was 4. I did not know many of the Romero's while I was growing up but I know I missed out on a lot. Whenever Lena and Jay saw me somewhere, they always made me feel extra special. I had a hard time connecting them to Evier, there were so many relatives I didn't know, I never got to meet. My husband and I used to see Jay at CC's (near the court house) in Abbeville.

I go to St. Pauls often as my mother and step-father are buried there. I saw Lena's grave riding around years ago and always watched for fresh dirt - figured that would be the only way I'd find out about Jay's passing. On Sunday, June 14th, I saw the mound of dirt and noticed the headstone was gone. That's how I found out. My cousin (Raymond & Velta Bourque) did not know Jay had died. My friend (Gerald Libersat), a barber at the nursing home, did not know either. We are all sorry for Jay's passing but pray for him and know he'll be happy being back with Lena and his daughter.
