“ I'm very saddened to learn that my old friend, Johnny Moore, has died,

We grew up in Franklin, LA, and, in the late Fifties, we were co-founders of The Del Royals dance band. Over the years, we played together in various bands, and on records.

Johnny is an unforgettable person and an unforgettable friend. I will keep him in my prayers.

Saw a guy on TV today playing a sax and he reminded me of Johnny. Tried to call and lead to obituary. I played many a gig with Johnny all over Louisiana in the late '50's and early 60's as a member of "The Wheels". He was a fun person and a great musician. RIP Johnny! Al Robinson- Houston

“ Johnny was a member of the Del Royals Band in the late 1950's. He played a mean tenor Saxaphone. I played bass guitar. Johnny was a great musician and I have wonderful memories of him associated with the band.

“ Johnny was a musician friend of mine. He went to the same school as my wife. I enjoyed sitting in on keyboards for him a few times when he wasn't feeling well. His walk through this life is now complete and begins a new one with our Saviour in the spiritual realm.. May Johnny Rest In Peace.
