Jo was born on June 12, 1999 in Lafayette, where he was a lifelong resident. He was a deeply spiritual and creative soul whose curiosity and joy touched everyone around him. He had a knack for expressing himself through his art, especially in the jewelry he designed and crafted with care. Jo was fascinated by the natural world and how things worked; he found joy in exploring geology and tinkering with electronics, always eager to learn and create.

Jo's bright spirit shone through in his love of dancing, his quick wit, and his ability to make others laugh with a perfectly timed joke. He cherished time spent with his family, who were the center of his heart. Jo will be remembered for his kind and genuine nature, his artistic spirit, and the light he brought into the lives of all who knew him.

Jo is survived by his mother, Michelle Lynn Burke of Rayne; his siblings, Devon D. Burke (Aleixis) of Judice, Alexius Burke of Lafayette, and Angeleaqua Rena Angelle of Scott; his nieces and nephews, Banks Burke, Kehlani Knight, and one niece on the way, Audrey Burke; his uncles, Brent N. Burke and Jared P. Burke; his great aunt, Connie Broussard; as well as his grandmother, Cynthia Gallet.

He was preceded in death by his uncle, Mason Burke; his grandfather, John Burke; as well as his great-grandparents, Rena and Luther Gallet and Karen "Dutch" Burke.
