“ Kenneth you are going to be missed but never forgotten. I am so grateful to have known you and worked with you for 27 years. You were not only a coworker, you were the real definition of friend. To your brother thank you as well for sharing him with his Baton Rouge, family who loved him just like you.

You will be missed "Broussard" as everyone in your Postal family called you. You had a gentle, quiet Spirit and always smiled. I enjoyed working with you. RIP, Sheral George

“ I will miss Kenney more than I can say. We started working at the Post Office in Baton Rouge together within a couple months of each other over 30 years ago. We've been friends ever since. I had hoped we could enjoy our retirement together as well. I will listen to his podcasts when I need to hear his voice. I will think of him always with much joy and warmth He was such a sweet soul. Love you always, Ramona.

“ Sam (Kenneth) was a cherished high school friend. A kind person with that witty personality that could quickly change the dynamics of any situation or conversation with the blink of an eye. During my college years Sam and his friends would frequently patronize the bar at Don’s Seafood Hut during my shifts and I still crack up when recalling some of the conversations as he recounted recent events from their work during the day. Sam was quite perceptive of others actions / behavior and quick to bringing the “should have been obvious to anyone’s” attention. Even other customers that had never met him found amusement in his delivery.

The last time I visited with Sam was at his house during a visit to Lafayette for the funeral of another dear friend. It was easily decades since I had spoken with Sam and I can recall how easy and natural the conversation was, as if no time had passed, and that he was still the same person as always, so accepting of others, kind, and at total peace with the life he lived. And his passion for all things guitar.

The world is less without Sam, but for those of us that got to know him, fortunate to have had the honor of Sam in our lives.

Keith, you are in my thoughts as we mourn the loss of your brother. I hope his memories bring you joy.

Sincerely, RIP Sam, Karl Schoppe

“ If you called him Kenneth, you must have been part of his family because his friends called him Sam (short for Samurai). He left us way too early and he will be greatly missed. There are far too many great memories to list, and most of them just make me smile if not outright laugh out loud. He was Best Man at my wedding. Although I moved away from Lafayette 35 years ago and although he and I didn't stay in touch nearly as much as I wish we had, I will always count him as one of my dearest friends. My sympathy goes out to Keith and the rest of his family. RIP Samurai! You will be greatly missed.
