“Wow, to choose a memory of Layne to share is not easy. There are so many from his tiny boyhood to when I last saw him in February. Even as a small child he was a one of kind whirlwind. Always laughing and getting into things. Joking around and having a good time did not mask his deep caring heart for people. I count it a blessing to have had him as a first cousin, a friend and an inspiration. In my heart and part of my life always.
