“ I’m sorry to hear just now about Leo. He was definitely a strong willed and awesome guy who people leaned on. Leo was a really strong Catholic and he quietly practiced his Christian beliefs in his everyday life. I am certain that he is in heaven with friends and family. May God bless his family.

“ Leo was a powerful and spiritual man. He was a loyal and true friend that helped me find my inner strength. His influence on my life was significant and I will miss his guidance and friendship. Please find some comfort that he is now with God and his son Cody. I hope he is waiting for me when I make my journey to heaven. I’m so sorry for your loss and I know he loved you all very much. I wish I could be there to pay my last respects to a truly unwavering and trustworthy friend.
