Lisney nació el 17 de agosto de 2010 en Ciego de Ávila, Cuba. Fue una hija, prima, estudiante y amiga muy querida, cuya presencia llenaba cualquier espacio de calidez y alegría. Brillante, enérgica y amigable, Lisney tenía un don especial para hacer sonreír a los demás. Amaba todo lo relacionado con el color rosa, desde vestidos hasta decoraciones, y esperaba con mucha ilusión celebrar su quinceañera, que habría sido el domingo siguiente a su partida.

Su sentido del humor, ingenio y encanto juguetón eran incomparables. Le encantaba bailar, cantar karaoke y transformar los días ordinarios en momentos divertidos, prestando ropa de la casa para jugar a disfrazarse. Su sonrisa era contagiosa, su corazón puro y su espíritu verdaderamente único.

Le sobreviven su amorosa madre, Liennys Guevara Sarabia; su tía, Betty Sarabia Alvarez; y sus primas, Lisney y Ludys Borroto Sarabia.

Se reunió en el descanso eterno sus bisabuelos Blanca Margarita Álvarez Dueña y Rogelio Guevara Iglesias, su abuela Tania Sabaia Álvarez y su tío Pedro Pablo Chaviano.

La familia desea expresar su más sincero agradecimiento a los médicos, enfermeras y personal del hospital por su cuidado y compasión durante los últimos días de Lisney, así como a las maestras, amigos y miembros de la comunidad que han brindado amor y apoyo en estos momentos tan difíciles. También quisiera aprovechar este momento para agradecer a todos sus cuidadores y amigos de la familia, incluyendo a Manuel, Valentina, Yaima, Meldre y muchos otros cuya amabilidad y cuidado han significado tanto. Lisney será profundamente extrañada por su familia extendida, amigos y todas las personas cuyas vidas tocó Lisney was born on August 17, 2010, in Ciego De Ávila, Cuba. She was a beloved daughter, cousin, student, and friend whose presence filled every space with warmth and joy. A bright, energetic, and friendly young girl, Lisney had a gift for making people smile. She loved all things pink, from dresses to decorations, and had been looking forward with excitement to celebrating her quinceañera which would have been the following Sunday from her passing.

Lisney's humor, wit, and playful charm were unmatched. She loved to dance, sing karaoke, and transform ordinary days into moments of fun by borrowing clothes from around the house for dress-up. Her smile was infectious, her heart pure, and her spirit truly one-of-a-kind.

“ From the moment she entered my classroom, I knew Lisney would have a place in my heart forever. No matter what kind of day I was having, she would get off the bus with her great big smile and run and hug me or Jordan, then ask for Kim, or as she called her “Kimberlina”. We may have taught her to say & spell her name, words and phrases in English, daily living skills, etc, but she taught us so much more about love and life. The time we had with her will forever remain precious memories for all of us and we feel beyond blessed to have spent those days with her. She brought all my students and staff together and made us feel like a family. You will never be forgotten, little angel, and will forever remain in all our hearts. Wish I could give you one more hug and kiss goodbye. (Like every afternoon, she would not get on the bus until she gave at least one of us a kiss goodbye.) Rest in peace “L’nay”.

“ I didn't teach Lisney, but- I was fortunate enough to have bus duty the last two years, which allowed me the opportunity to see her sweet smile and the chance to say goodbye, have the best day, and weekend wishes each day before I left work.

She especially loved and appreciated all of my bright outfits and holiday accessories! Lisney was sweet, and had the brightest most loving smile. My prayers are with her and all of her family and friends. She touched far more hearts than you'd ever realize!

“ Lisney came to school, not knowing the language and ended up with the best possible Teacher Janice Moss and assistants, Jordan and Kim who loved her and cared for her for the last three years. When I knocked on the classroom door, you could hear her on the other side, saying “open the door” She was never far from her mirror and loved her Bowling shirt. She will be deeply missed. Prayers for all of her family and friends.
