LJ was a loving spouse, father, Paw Paw, parrain, and uncle. He was also a great provider, hard-working man, jack of all trades, and a master of none. Upon retirement from Riviana Foods, LJ could always be found manicuring the lawns, tending his cattle, bailing hay, and working in the fields. He was always available to lend a helping hand and had much success with his vegetable garden. LJ will be remembered by everyone for his caring heart and his quick wit.
