In her early years, Lorita was employed at Borden's and also worked in the pharmacy of Howard Brothers department store in Lafayette. She was a genuine person and a natural caregiver. For many years, she provided childcare in her home for children ranging from infants to two years old. She loved those children as if they were her own. Lorita was a devoted grandmother and great-grandmother; she was always active in her grandchildren's lives and activities. She took pleasure in tending to her flower gardens in her yard. Throughout her life, she remained steadfast in her Catholic faith and prayed her Rosary daily. Her family will dearly miss her.

Lorita is survived by her daughter, Katie Marie Hebert of Lafayette; her two sons, Michael Keith Broussard (Leah) of Maurice, and Bryan Paul Broussard (Ellie) of Illinois; her two grandchildren, Gregory John Folse, Jr. (Brooke) and Amanda Marie Suzanne Folse; as well as her two great-grandchildren, David Cole Comeaux and Amanda Cali Comeaux.

“ I was the first baby Mrs Broussard kept in her home, and I'm convinced her homemade lunches are the reason rice and gravy is my favorite meal! :) Even after I outgrew her childcare, I visited Lorita and Bruce (as we called him) often since they lived close by. Our family has so much love for the Broussards! I pray you are all comforted by precious memories of your mother and grandmother - may she rest in peace. - Mimi Reeves Arthur
