Lula was born on December 16, 1941, in Lafayette Parish and was a resident of Breaux Bridge. She was a loving and sentimental woman whose greatest joy in life was her family. She treasured every memory and surrounded herself with countless family photographs that reflected the deep love she had for those closest to her.

Lula enjoyed watching westerns and admired many of their iconic stars, especially Chuck Norris and John Wayne. While she loved reminiscing about cherished moments from the past, she was never happier than when she was spending time with her grandchildren. She had a special gift for caring for others, particularly children, whom she nurtured with both love and guidance, helping them grow into remarkable adults.

Family was the center of Lula's world. She often prepared meals simply for the opportunity to gather loved ones around her table. Though she did not always have much, she was generous with whatever she had and freely shared her time, resources, and affection with those in need. Above all, Lula loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and faithfully dedicated her life to Him. She never missed an opportunity to share her faith with others and was passionate about preaching the saving power of the blood of Jesus Christ. Her greatest desire was for those around her to know and trust in Him as their Lord and Savior, in her own words "preach the blood of Jesus." Her kindness, generosity, unwavering faith, and caring spirit will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by her family, friends, and all who were blessed to know her.

She is survived by her children, Bryant Begnaud (Carolyn), Jodie Ruffins (Rodney), Eugene Begnaud, Eddie Begnaud (Erin), and Paula Begnaud; her eleven grandchildren, Cody, Ravin, Kristin, Summer, Truitt, Cameron, Carmen, Brooke, Connor, Cainnon, and Hannah; and her great-grandchildren, Mariah, Leah, Hannah, Christian, and Camille, with Luke expected to arrive soon.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Bertha Jolivette Zeno, and stepfather, Homer Zeno; her father, David Sonnier; her grandparents, Jules Jolivette and Eucharist Breaux Jolivette; her brothers, Wilton Zeno and Eugene Zeno; and her sister, Pearl Chargois.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the staff of Landmark of Acadiana Nursing Home for their compassionate care and support. They also wish to thank the staff of Our Lady of Lourdes, especially Dr. Carbajal and his team, for the comfort, kindness, and care they provided during Lula's final days.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
