

Lynn M. Broussard

August 25, 1960 - May 16, 2022

Maurice -

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Friday, May 20, 2022, at 2:00 PM in St. Alphonsus Catholic Church in Maurice for Lynn M. Broussard, age 61, who passed away peacefully on Monday, May 16, 2022, at his residence in Maurice, surrounded by his family.

Rev. Fr. Paul Bienvenu, pastor of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, will celebrate the funeral Mass, and the Rev. Fr. Donald Bernard, of St. Mary Magdalen, will serve as homilist.

Visitation will be in St. Alphonsus Catholic Church on Friday, May 20, 2022, from 12:00 PM until the time of the Mass; with a Rosary being prayed at 1:00 PM in the church.

Lynn M. Broussard was born on August 25, 1960 in Abbeville, and he was a resident of Maurice. Lynn worked as an electrician for the Vermilion parish school board for 20 years, and was an electrical instructor at Southwest Louisiana Community College. After retiring, he opened Lynn Broussard Photography in Maurice, for which he was probably best known. Lynn was also a customer relationship manager for Albums, Inc., a photo album company that allowed him to travel and make many lifelong friends outside of the area. No one was a stranger to him. Lynn enjoyed and operated the photography business until his passing, and continued to do freelance electrical work as well. He proudly described himself as a farmer, and enjoyed raising and selling okra. An avid hunter, he loved spending time in nature, where he mostly closely felt the presence of God. He attended the Abbeville Men's Silent Retreat at Grand Coteau for many years. A boisterous personality, Lynn loved laughter, fun, and the company of great friends. He was an excellent cook who enjoyed entertaining and preparing meals for his loved ones. He had an appreciation for history, and collected various antique articles. Lynn loved music as well, and enjoyed listening to a carefully cultivated, unique and diverse playlist of his personal favorites. To those who knew him, Lynn's musical taste was well-defined. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Lynn is survived by his wife, Ann Lori Langlinais Broussard; her children, Seth Bourque (Alicia), Cole Bourque (Peggy) and Alison Bourque; his grandchildren, Kamren and Katelyn Ernest, Asher and David Jennings, and Maverick Bourque; his siblings, Jackie Clay (Michael), Lynette Breaux (Sedric), and Richard Broussard; his nieces and nephews, Meagen Clay (Jake), Trevor Clay, Britaney Fontenot (Mark), Morgan Hebert (Trey), Seth Broussard, Caroline Clay, Ella, Meredith and William Fontenot, and Elyse Hebert.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Hilda and Claude Broussard.

In lieu of flowers memorial contribution may be made in honor of Lynn Broussard to the Ross Granger Memorial Fund www.rossgranger.org; or the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network www.pancan.org.

The family wishes to offer a heartfelt thank you to the numerous friends and family in our own personal village that have supported us on this journey; Dr.

Joseph Brierre, Eric Buller, P.A and their staff; Mia Rabalais with Acadian Palliative Care and their staff; as well as the staff of Acadian Hospice.

Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 West Lafayette St., Maurice, LA. 70555, (337) 740-3123, is in charge of Funeral arrangements.

“ Missing my cousin and friend Lynn, especially his smile and the twinkle in his eye. The first person I never knew to die of the big C was his mom. Never would we have imagined one of her children going the same way. I pray Our Lord has Lynn and Mr Claude and Ms Hilda all loving up on each other but mainly praying that perpetual light is shining on our dear boy Lynn right now.

“Lynn was a jack of all trades. Many will remember him as the VPSB electrician and photographer. He touched employees as well as students. He had vision and captured many of our best moments behind the lens of his camera, for he made others smile. If it were not through photos it was through his jokes and sense of humor. God sent this very talented man to share his gift with others; now God is sharing his beautiful scenery with Lynn. Rest in peace for a job well done.

“Lynn was the epitome of a true professional photographer. He honed his skill to become one of the finest photographers we came to know and love. He knew how to capture the surroundings and emotion of the moment using his artistic nature. Some of the finest photographs of Acadiana and its people were captured from a little well-known man from Maurice, Louisiana. His hunting trips with Sammy and his other friends are memories we will cherish forever. Hunting trips were highlighted with the treat of having Lynn cook for the hunting crew. His culinary skills always included “okra”, his favorite vegetable to grow. Great times, memories to last a lifetime, a genuine man, and one of the kindest men I knew. Lynn would do anything for anyone, just to help us along in life. The deer and turkey are in sight.... Take them my friend. Call me when they are cooked!!! For now, I'll stay in the blind. May you rest in peace my friend.

“ I met Lynn when he was an electrician for VPSB. I talked him into installing recessed lights in our home. It was so hot in the attic. I bough okra from him for years. Last time he had me getting boudin for him. We had a standing joke of saying Merry Fing Christmas. I forget how that started. Such a nice amicable guy. He will be missed. So glad Ann Lorie was there for him.
