“ Mrs Mary taught me in elementary school and way later in life we reunited I was her nurse for a while. The time she was there we spoiled each other all over again, so loving and caring. She was always My first stop because I knew I needed her sweet and kind words to get me thru the day. She called me her “angel on earth” for a special reason that I will always cherish and it’ll be a forever memory embedded in my memory and career. Sleep in love my Sweet Mary,
Edith

“ Mary and I have been friends for years. We spent so much time together at Holly Beach with our first granddaughters. Mary was a loyal and trustworthy friend. At Kaplan Elementary she was there for me at a very tense time in my life. She talked me into knowing that all things would be good and that with God all things are possible. She carried things to her grave that I told her in confidence. She was that kind of friend, loving, loyal, and genuine. I will miss you, Mary. I love you!
