

Michelle Ghent Seaton

September 14, 1988 - May 27, 2025

Maurice -

With profound sorrow and overwhelming love, we announce the passing of Michelle Ghent Seaton, who departed this life on May 27, 2025, at the age of 36. Born in Jeanerette, Louisiana, and a resident of Maurice, Michelle was a radiant soul whose light touched countless lives.

Michelle was the devoted wife of Trey Seaton—the love of her life—and a fiercely loving mother to their daughters: Bryn Ghent-Lewis, Dorothy Seaton, and Estelle Seaton. Her family was her greatest joy and deepest pride.

A passionate and driven entrepreneur, Michelle was the founder and creative force behind Surprise Ring Bombs. She also thrived as a sales representative for LFT Fiber, where her brilliance, tireless work ethic, and warmth left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered.

Michelle was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Annette Holbrook; her maternal grandparents, Grace and Robert Holbrook; and her paternal grandparents, John C. Ghent and Beulah Mae Ghent. Their memory was a guiding presence throughout her life.

She is survived by her loving husband and daughters; her father and stepmother, Steve and Maria Ghent; and her sisters, Nicki Ghent and Cynthia Ghent. She is also fondly remembered by her in-laws, Tommy and Marlayna LeBlanc and Teddy Seaton; her sister-in-law, Taylor LeBlanc Breaux (Chris); and her brothers-in-law, Dylan LeBlanc, Jeremy LeBlanc, Kaleb LeBlanc, and Cameron Seaton.

Michelle's closest friends, Cortni Mire and Rachel Wiggins, were like sisters to her and stood by her side through every season of life.

She also leaves behind a large extended family—including uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, and nephews—each of whom she loved deeply and who loved her dearly in return.

Michelle's heart was open to all. Whether she was rescuing animals, organizing fundraisers, or offering a safe space for those in need, her life was a testament to compassion, generosity, and joy.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Tuesday, June 3, 2025, at 5:00 PM at Rip Van Winkle Gardens, located at 5505 Rip Van Winkle Road, New Iberia, LA 70560.

The family invites all who attend to honor Michelle in the spirit in which she lived—vibrantly, joyfully, and full of color. Please wear bright colors and come prepared to share memories filled with love and laughter.

Michelle will be missed beyond words, but her love, strength, and the radiant light she brought into this world will never be forgotten.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.

I am in such disbelief and sadness. I did not know Michelle personally however I feel like I did. I always watched her lives on TicTok and I ordered surprise jewelry from her many times. I will never forget when I ordered a stack from her and when she opened it I will always remember what she said, Everyone is looking for the sought after Watermelon Stack and who gets...Miss Stella does!! I loved how she let everyone share her family, her husband Trey and her beautiful daughters. She was such a joy to watch. I loved how her and her BFF Rachel Wiggins would always prank each other when both of them achieved different status's within Bomb Party. I am truly going to miss her and miss watching her lives. I know she is still living her best life in Heaven. I pray that God will wrap his arms around her Husband and her precious Daughters and help them get thru their loss. Michelle I will miss you and I'm SO very sorry this happened to you. R.I.P dear friend. -Much love, Stella Sauer “Michelle was one of the most kind and inviting person I have ever met online. I tried to follow in her footsteps with bomb party but I could not even compare to her success she made of it. But I still really enjoyed being a part of her team a few years back. I since left bomb parties but I always loved to still watch Michele interact with the people online. It was fun and very entertaining to watch her. Even though I never met her in person I felt very much like we could have been the best of friends. Honestly probably one I could use. So with great sadness I am sending much love to her children and family. And prayers for comfort and courage because I know you all have to stay strong for her babies. God Bless you all.

“ Ms. Michelle was a wonderful person and was so kind and sweet to everyone. I purchased BP from her for years and I have been looking around my house this week at gifts I received from her with purchases like my solid quartz that she tried to crack open and couldn't because it was completely solid. The Surprise Bombs ink pens that sit in a cup on my desk and I don't use them because I don't want the ink to every be empty. Sand in a bottle from a beach trip that she took and some jewelry that she did as giveaways that was even more beautiful than what I had purchased. When after 19 years of being a Doggy Mom, I lost my last one, she made sure to get me a ring with the paw print on it from another rep as I kept buying trying to get one. I treasure it and keep it in a pink velvet box on my desk. I always loved how when it was bedtime, the girls would come in and say Goodnight and she always took time for them and made sure they weren't on camera, even though once in awhile, one might try to sneak in. I loved when she would go live and show us how she prepared a meal or would talk about something she had cooked and once she was talking about some chicken she had cooked and looked down and her eyes got big, she had revealed one of many diamonds. I would go to her downlines and purchase to help support them when they got started. My house is so full of jewelry that I could change it 3 times a day and still never wear it all; but I wanted to buy it from Ms. Michelle and support her business. I don't buy it as much as I used to but I was honored to have been once of her customers for years. When she started making cups, I actually won one of them because I answered a trivia question and it has my initials on it and I love it, but I don't use it often because I won it from Ms. Michelle and I savor it. We never met in person, but watching her on Facebook and hearing her talk about her Trey and her girls, I felt like I knew them all. If my Mom was at my house and I was watching a BP live, she would ask who it was and if I said "Michelle" she would reply "With my Favorite?" and I would say yes and hand her my phone and she would watch until my reveal and let me see my reveal and take the phone back. She is the only rep that she would do that with. Her lives truly helped me get through the loss of my last Doggy son and that was one of the toughest times in my life. Watching Ms. Michelle would give me a good distraction and helped me not think about my grief. Ms. Michelle was the face of Bomb Party and the company is truly going to feel the impact of her loss. I am praying for all that knew and loved her, even those that were customers like myself living not even close by but feeling like we were neighbors and friends.
