Millie R. Wilborn was born on October 26, 1955, in Wiggins, Mississippi and she was a long-time resident of Abbeville. She was a wonderful cook, and she enjoyed sharing her cooking knowledge with others. In her spare time, she enjoyed crafting, crocheting, and ceramics. More than anything Millie was a loving mother and grandmother, she absolutely adored her grandchildren. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

“ Grandma Millie is what we called her, that or Mama. She looked forward to creating masterpieces in the kitchen. Every time she came to visit, she made a feast out of all our of our favorite things. While we loved everything she made, our favorite by far was her chocolate doberge cake, it never lasted for very long. Grandma Millie was always laughing and smiling and she would find joy in all the small things, taking nothing for granted. I will truly miss her infectious laugh and her beautiful smile. I'll miss you mama.
