“ This is her son Audrey Dale Newell the best memory! I have is when I was born the Doctor told her that I was going to be a baby for the rest of my life and they went to my school and told them that if I get up and start playing around just let me be case I don't now better so that what they did than one I got home my brother and my sisters was out side playing when she set me down at the table and made me do school work if it was not for her love for me to teach me I would not be where I am today I think her for her love to show everyone that I am not a child at age 53 and sted I am a broad crown man I will all ways have that and I am so. Grafol that my mom love me that much to make me lorn and made her son a man that doesn't really on now one but his self I really hope you would read this out loud where everyone would now what kind of laundry and mom she was I will miss my mom alot. But I now she is in have looking down on us and Smalling at what she has done with her kids I think you for your time I am sorry that I couldn't be there to say this myself so I really think you for reading this on my behalf
