Neila B. Bertrand was born on September 8, 1927, in Maurice where she remained a lifelong resident. She was well known in Abbeville as she worked at Hebert's Pharmacy for 14 years and then worked for Dr. Pearson for many years after. Neila and Pop worked their farm in Maurice as well as maintained the Winn property in Lake Arthur in their later years. Needless to say, they were very hard workers. Neila will be sorely missed by her children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and her friends.

Neila B. Bertrand is survived by her three sons, Tom Doucet (Joann), Craig Doucet (Gary Benner), and Richard Bertrand (Lynette); her one daughter

Brenda Doucet; her 13 grandchildren; her 28 great grandchildren; as well as nine great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Otto Bertrand; her twin daughters, Peggy Frederick and Judy Aubin; her parents, Ernest Broussard and Elmire Decou Broussard; her 4 siblings, Fred Broussard, George Broussard, Sydney Broussard, Olite Bourque; as well as her twin, and Louis Broussard.

The family wishes to offer a heartfelt thank you to the doctors, nurses, and staff of the Ellington of Rayne, who provided such good care for Neila; as well as nurse Lana at Heart of Hospice who loved her and made sure she had what she needed during her time of need.
