

Norma Aguilar Hebert

March 2, 1946 - August 6, 2025

Broussard -

Norma Aguilar Hebert, age 79, passed away on Wednesday, August 6, 2025 in Lafayette.

Norma was born on March 2, 1946 in Monterrey, Mexico, and she was a longtime resident of Broussard. She was a passionate animal lover, known for spending tons of money buying food for the birds and squirrels as well as donating to animal rescues. Her summers were spent keeping the grandchildren spoiled and entertained. Norma was an amazing cook and a talented seamstress. She was a very giving person that was always ready and willing to give the shirt off of her back for her family. It would be dishonest to not mention her stubbornness and spicy side, hence the nickname of "Rock" given to her by John, her spouse. We were blessed beyond measure to have you in our lives. She will be forever missed but never forgotten.

Norma is survived by her children, Lisa Louise Freeman of Louisiana, John Darrell Hebert of Florida, Linda Ann Landry (Steve Paul) of Texas, and Tina Marie Schexnayder (Blaine Paul) of Indiana; her grandchildren, Ashley Freeman, Megan Brady (Jordan), Brittini Jones (Kyle), Steven Landry, II (Britany), Blake Schexnayder (Kaitlyn), and Jace Schexnayder; her great-grandchildren, Janais Savoie, Dillan Freeman, Janais Freeman, Rose Brady, Kynzie Jones, Kamryn Jones, Lainey Landry, and Owen Landry; her great-great-grandchildren, Baylor Freeman and Ivory Schexnayder; her niece, Nohemi Diaz and sons Corey Diaz, Jace Vaughn and Christopher Vaughn; as well as her dearest friend, Gurt Batiste of Broussard.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, John Walter Hebert, Jr (6/2021); as well as her daughter, Nita McNoulty (7/2020) and spouse, Daniel McNoulty (11/2023).

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Best Friends Animal Society or any animal rescue of your choice in honor of Norma.

Per her request, there will be “no service. Just rent a big cabin in the mountains of Tennessee. Y’all gather and have fun. Spread my ashes in the mountains”

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
