“ Miss Opal was my mother-in-law. From early on, I was in awe of the quiet strength she showed when dealing with the hard times and tragedies we all, sooner or later, experience in our lives.

Looking back, i also realized the grace with which she conducted herself. She was always humble, never boastful - when you complemented her she acted as though it was no big task being herself.

I once told her that I thought she looked just like Amelia Earhart, (the female aviator), she thought I was crazy and laughed about it. But when you think about it, she was like Amelia Earhart - strong, confident, humble and fearless!

And she was great at being a Mom because she created and nurtured the best, most respectful, kind and genuinely loving human being ever = her son, Brent, my late husband!

I will miss her as, I'm sure, everyone who knew her will.

May she rest in peace and may the light and peace of God's love surround her.
