“ Ms. Patty was a friend of my mother, Catherine Richard and over the years, became a friend of mine as well. I always enjoyed the visits we had and I loved her positive attitude, even when times were not so great or when she was feeling bad. Her sassy comments and snappy sense of humor always made me laugh. Most of all, I admired how she loved her family and had the ability to find good in whatever life through at her. I am sorry that I did not have the opportunity to say goodbye, but I know she is home now and resting peacefully in the arms of her Lord and Savior.
