“ Paul was my grandpa. it doesn't say it in the obituary for some odd reason, but in the 2 years of me and my family knowing him we're probably the best 2 years of my life. we never had that granddaughter/father bond growing up with out an actual grandfather. still, no matter what he accepted us into his life after all these years of not knowing he had a daughter, grandchildren and a son-in-law. He never failed to show up, reach out, or make it known that he loved and cared for us. every birthday, every holiday, even when he just wanted to know what we were up to. i'll never forget his bond with my best friend and how loving he was. rest in peace grandpa and i love you ☐

“ I met Paul, back in the day. He had an apartment in Bayou Vista next to ours. That's where he met my sister Debra Williams. Paul and my sister had a one night stand and we just found out 3 years ago that he was the father to my Godchild Sammi Jo Williams. Yes Paul and Sammi did an ancestral DNA, that's how we proved he was her father. Paul always wanted a kid and now he did. He was so proud of Sammi and got very close. I'd really love to know the reason why Rhonda left her and his grandkids out of the obituary?
