Paul was born on January 12, 1958 in Abbeville and he was a longtime resident of Leroy. He was a man of the earth and a pillar of faith, whose life was defined by the seasons of the farm and the devotion of a servant's heart. For Paul, farming wasn't just a job; it was a lifestyle that he mastered and a legacy he carefully passed down, ensuring his children inherited not only his skills but his incredible work ethic.

Most importantly, Paul was a devout Catholic; his life was a testament to his strong faith. He was known as a man of immense positivity and quiet strength: slow to anger and exceptionally generous with his time and spirit. While he took great pride in his crops, his greatest "harvest" was his family. They were his number one priority and his greatest source of pride and joy. Paul's gentle nature and his enduring love for his family leave a lasting impression on all those that are left behind, as well as an abundance of positive memories to carry with them in their hearts.

Paul is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Sue Ellen Duhon; his children, Ryan Paul Duhon (Brittany), Matthew Luke Duhon (Nicole), and Taylor Michele York (Bailey); his grandchildren, Zoey Melancon, Carter Duhon, Caroline Dubois, Bree Duhon, Jacob Dubois, and Carlie Duhon; his mother, Vernice Duhon; his siblings, Mary Hebert, Freddie Duhon, and JB Duhon; his wonderful brothers and sister-in-laws; his beloved nieces and nephews; as well as countless extended family members.

He was preceded in death by his father, Otis Bradley Duhon; his brothers, Lloyd Duhon and Jean Bradley Duhon; and his nephew, Cori Wayne Duhon.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in memory of Paul to Hospice of Acadiana (<https://hospiceacadiana.com/hoa/donate>).

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Hospice of Acadiana and Right At Home for all the care and compassion that they extended to Paul and his loved ones in their time of need.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
